

Are you the motivated fun Physio we are looking for?

Are you a Physiotherapist looking for a part time or full time physiotherapy position in a supportive team environment looking to develop your clinical knowledge or are you looking for a tree-change to an idyllic location famous for great food, wine and community? Then this could be your dream role!

But first, a bit about You:

- You will have excellent people skills and communication is your strong suit
- You will display integrity and accountability with all your actions and behaviours
- You thrive as part of a team and have a good sense of humour
- You are committed to self-improvement through continuing education
- You thrive on personal development and want to grow

If all of this describes you, then this Physiotherapist position may be the right one for you.

About us:

We are a dynamic private practice located in the idyllic Barossa Valley. We help our clients get back to doing what they love.

Our practice moved into a purpose-built allied health centre in 2018 and as an established practice for over 25 years we are known for delivering excellent patient outcomes in a fun and friendly environment. We are continuing to expand as we are well respected in the local medical community with an excellent reputation, and have a popular following from our patients. We have an onsite gym, run classes and have a new purpose built large hydrotherapy pool which is now open!

You will join a team of 3 Physiotherapists working in new premises. You will be responsible for delivering best practice rehabilitation to a Sports, Rehabilitation and Musculoskeletal patient list. You will take part in structured professional development and clinical training. You will contribute to service development and engage in regular team meetings. You will have the opportunity to develop your clinical interests and grow yourself a niche.

We thrive on helping all our team to reach their potential professionally and personally and provide all the support necessary for you to reach your goals in a caring, fun and supportive environment. Your remuneration package will be offered based upon your clinical experience, special interests and education that you bring with great performance incentives so you are rewarded for your hard work and will contribute to external PD courses each year.

We offer excellent in-house training, fortnightly PD and funding support for external PD, and you'll be working within our current team of 3 outstanding physios.

Whether you are a young energetic practitioner looking for an inspiring practice to leap frog years in your learning curve, or you are more experienced and want to expand your career opportunities and reach your true potential, we would love to meet you.

Tell us why this job is for you!

Forward you application letter and resume subject filed "Helping others achieve their health goals" to Kate Milne at physio@countrywidephysio.com.au

We look forward to hearing from you!